

February 2019

Festival Awareness Month

The month of February we will be learning about diverse festival and how the different cultures celebrate them. At Kidz Club the children will set out to discover more about the different cultures around them. We endeavour to find out not only the differences but common threads that together weave the fabric of what it is to be Australian. February also marks Chinese New Year, Year of Pig we wish all our families celebrating this event a prosperous New Year!
